

ABOUT THE ROAD SHOW:

THE BATTLE OF THE SOMME ROAD SHOW consists of individual elements that can be staged separately or together. This leaflet provides a menu from which customers may select elements that best suits their requirements.

The elements comprise of:

- Targeted Talks

A selection of talks is available and include(s) subjects as diverse as 'Bullets, Bombs and Bayonets: The Weapons of Trench Warfare' to 'Feeding Tommy: Rations and Cooking on The Western Front'. A full list of talks is available on our Website. If you require a bespoke subject please contact us.

- Artefact Handling

We have a wide range of both original and reproduction First World War Soldiers equipment. This includes everyday as well as specialist equipment. We use some weapons all of which are deactivated and safe.

- Information Panels

As part of any event we have a series of pull up display panels. these provide information for visitors about the Great War in general and the Battle of the Somme specifically.

- Live Interpretation

We provide skilled and knowledgeable male and female presenters, correctly dressed in accurate period uniform. Our interpreters interact with visitors.

- Great War Medical Unit/Camp Site

We have a fully equipped Great War tented medical unit that is interpreted by uniformed medical staff. This area can be presented as a standard 'behind the lines' camp site.

- Military Ancestry Road Show

Our panel of military history experts are available to answer visitor queries relating to questions about the military service of their relations and offer advice on any military artefacts brought in. We have supported a number of national and regional organisations with the Military Ancestry Road Show as well as the BBC.

- Filming the Somme

The team includes experts on the filming and photography of the Battle of the Somme and we can provide a narration to accompany a screening of all or selected parts of the original 1916 film.
